

It is sad that the FCC along with other government agencies no longer believe in Democracy which you are doing by allowing the Sinclair Broadcasting group to air a program for free, although paid for by the taxpayers, which is obviously a political advertisement. If you were going to be fair about this you'd also allow a program like Farenheight 911 or the Frontline program on Bush and kerry to be presented for free in all of the same markets.